

Welcome to the website of TCT Private Investigations & Security, Inc.

TCT Private Investigations & Security, Inc., provides the following services: pre- workman's compensation, criminal defense and product; Trial inquiries in personal injury, liability cases; internal theft investigations; undercover evaluations; skip tracing and asset, witness, defendant and missing persons location; assets; real estate; financial; surveillance (video and photography); activity checks; continued 24-hour service; covert camera (night vision); information retrieval; public, records; computer data base searches; certified voice stress examiner; covert and overt interview for truth verification; fire investigation (cause and origin); and witness interviews.

The company's employees have over 20 years of experience in criminal and civil investigations. Ronald Lawson, the company president, has been a Detective for the last 15 years and a Patrolman for 10 years prior to that.

TCT Private Investigations & Security, Inc., handles all investigations in an energetic and efficient manner. The company strives to be responsive to the needs of its clients with professionalism and courtesy.

If you should have the need for any type of investigations, please consider our company and give us a call at the number listed on our website. If you need any further details concerning our services, don't hesitate to give us a call.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. I hope our company can be of service to you in the future.

TCT PRIVATE INVESTIGATIONS & SECURITY, INC.

By:

Ronald A. Lawson, President